

Area B

IN BENDIGO

For the first time ever! Bendigo is hosting the Area B Assembly. Are you coming?

Where:

Doxa School

118-120 Hargreaves St, Bendigo

Sunday, 19th of February 2012

Did you know?

You can purchase literature through the Area Literature Officer.

Come to the Assembly and meet your new literature officer Les. Place a literature order for yourself or your group, in person, over the phone or via email and have it delivered or pick it up from an Area Assembly.

That you can download AA Events and meetings lists for all over Victoria from the AA Times website.

www.aatimes.org.au

You can order physical meetings books from the AA Prahran Central Service Office for free

<http://office.aamelbourne.org.au/meetingsbooks>

The National Convention of AA is in Melbourne this Easter.

There are approximately 13 self confessed female alcoholics in India, a country of 1.2 billion give or take a million and that Alcoholics Anonymous is planning a trip to India to carry the message female alcoholics.

AA has a presence in approximately 30% of correctional facilities. And the AA Victorian Intergroup is trying to carry the

What's happening:

Workshop	10:30am
BBQ Lunch	12:00pm
Area Assembly	1:00pm

Sunday, 19th of February

For the first time ever the Area B Assembly is going to be in Bendigo. If you have never been to an Area Assembly and you live anywhere near Bendigo you should come along. Find out what's happening in our Area and what opportunities you can take up to carry the message to alcoholics that still suffer and share your successes and failures in carrying the message with the rest

AREA B ASSEMBLY